SUBJECT No. 321.

Impressing carts for public purposes.

Mr. B. Narasinga Rao, Seringapatam Municipality.

Summary of discussion.—In impressing carts for public purposes, the Government servants entrusted with the task may be distinctly directed not to take hold of the carts passing on business on roads but to go straight to the villages themselves and secure the carts generally plying for hire. The present practice of impressing carts passing on roads has a tendency of retarding trade and causing worry and trouble to ignorant ryots.

Reply of Government.—The Standing Order on the subject will be published and circulated again for the information and guidance of all concerned.

SUBJECT No. 322.

Preliminary training to technical students.

Mr. D. Venkataramaiya, City Municipality, Bangalore.

Summary of discussion.—Provision may be made to give one year's training to young men locally before sending them to Technical and Industrial schools outside the State. This will give a scope to ascertain a boy's aptitude.

NOTE.—The member has undertaken to submit a memorandum on this subject.

SUBJECT No. 323.

Annual deputation of select officers to foreign countries.

(a) Mr. M. Venkatakrishnaiya, Mysore City Municipality.
(b) Mr. V. Raghavachar, Mysore Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—(a) That important officers of the State be sent in batches to tour through the important countries of the world to study their economic conditions, so that on return they may bring their experience to bear upon developing the resources of our own country.

(b) Some of the Engineers, Forest Officers, Doctors and Agricultural and Educational Officers must be annually sent to foreign countries to study the conditions in their respective departments and apply them to the State as far as possible.

Reply of Government.—Recorded.

SUBJECT No. 324.

The 12th day of Rabbilaval a holiday.

Messrs. C. Rassul Khan, Anjumani-islamia, Chikmagalur, and G. Abdul Khalik, Chikmagalur Municipality.

Summary of discussion.—Every year the 12th day of the month of Rabbilaval, the Prophet's birthday, may be notified as a Mahomedan holiday in Mysore.

Reply of Government.—The observance of this day as a partial holiday for Mahomedans will be sanctioned.

SUBJECT No. 325.

A compilation of all the Standing Orders of Government.

Mr. Raghavachar, Mysore Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—The standing orders of Government are now known only to the officials of the departments concerned. A book containing such orders of all departments is badly needed in courts and by the general public. Such a compilation may be taken on hand very early.

Reply of Government.—Noted.
